Summary: An autobiography of Yesisreal the water spirit, as an analogy of eternal life.

Once upon a time there?.

Was nothing other than just a wet muddy dream land; that was once a garden (magic den); where every creature had called it home once upon a time? Now in this Garden there were many creatures and each after the fall of Eden given a choice of where it would be.

Now Yesisreal was a water spirit that existed of pure energy, that was for the universe, some still mention this in these stories and why this tail is long. Now when Yesisreal saw the effect of what happened, when man took and they were told not to!

Yesisreal promised with all its heart to try its best, to help others to see. Yet without being as they saw others doing and taking by being pushy in. Now from this great forest that was like a dreamland, where reality could live alone, Yesisreal was given a choice of what it would like to be in each life. It asked to be a spirit like lightning in each and every child, that was to grow and help its imagination to see a better world, where we all can live and can play all the time.

So Yesisreal has helped each and everyone's imagination of growth, like growth, yet making the soul grow called Yesisreal!

Now Yesisreal was given a mission in dream land, where you could live in and beautiful, if we only take care of it as we should.

As Yesisreal had a good group of friends, also whose imaginations could imagine the most amazing things, a bit like how a seed of the mustard tree grow as a tree should; so to allow other creatures to live in its branches. When it grows it makes a whole world in which to live, for all other creatures it's self as Yesisreal saw many do.

So where did Yesisreal start, well it looked at all creatures and saw what and discussed with them a plan.

So it went to the octopus and asked if it could borrow its ink to be able to remember.

Yet how could Yesisreal do that, and then it remembered that a little creature noticed, yet made a huge web to catch things.

So it went to this Spider, now this was a very special spider?

Even though it wasn't like any other creature it saw to begin with, it watched what happened and decided to record it.

Now it knew how to spin webs to show and catch things, yet how could it help creatures, when it was so small?

Also as it was so small it was very clever for its size and looks so stopped. Instead of rushing around as it saw all others trying to do as to fix these, it put them all down together with links as a spider does!

As then others could learn and even if Yesisreal didn't have a big web, he was important first to help stop them destroying the garden.

Not to make the same mistakes he made at some point to.

You see as Yesisreal could smile it clung on to that love inside it, for (name) as it had been originally, and had given Yesisreal this special story.

As Yesisreal remembered how once upon a time it had come from another world where nothing existed, so it made a web to live in!

So what Yesisreal did is went as a dolphin and talked with the light's of luminous eyes that had seen the reality, as it could live in space and it could. It must seek out what this means to learn a cryptic clue of lines to make people's?

Well Yesisreal like most? was like well I don't know and forgot we do?? We haven't got a chance of understanding that and went off scurrying in the dark didn't know how!

Yet in running of Yesisreal also forgot to learn the Highway Code before the bus of people, who were on their way to church!

Who didn't even notice they just killed Yesisreal again.

So Yesisreal came as a deer, as they must see that and hear it is harmful. Who Yesisreal thought cared, as had been done in the secret garden, yet forgotten and so they shot at Yesisreal!

When he came as white deer to them, they saw Yesisreal as something different, realising this was and is the same light and spirit, which was in the deer. So Yesisreal as is any Good creature doesn't die, yet goes back into life good, as the water goes back into life always!

So with Yesisreal love it came back as a dolphin and came went to the ocean legs and seeker this same puzzle as on (9) legs they both found it a bit different.

Yesisreal found that it was working on this same plan, so asked if it could paint across time as a spider to paint, what he now saw whilst singing in the dark to make!

So remembering its own smile regardless, where it had been!

This made it so special to others as regardless of what it had been and how Yesisreal, he would come back to help them understand, how to fix the garden. As they are a very complicated thing as you see!

Which can take you many life times to learn, as without people realising they have been in the garden once upon a time?

They have simply removed themselves through taking of its fruit and not living with as always Yesisreal says the same.

The problem comes as some spiders build webs in daft places and we see their webs fall to pieces, as instead of checking the foundations are solid?

They build off unsecured rocks, that when removed the entire web falls, so to fix it at the last minute!

The only way for the spider to win a battle with the wind, is to let go and be suited for it!

As any sort of clinging on to a branch, that the wind blows fast past; won't work.

Instead it will eat you as the wind will, and pick up the spider and carry it away. Now this Yesisreal so loved it could glow with magic and some other would.

Yesisreal was just a normal water spirit like any other!

The difference is that Yesisreal tries first always to check where it first made its own egg.

Yesireal knew that it wasn't so long before in one of its life times, it had

Now to make the centre of a web it is circle that these points join to and

If not this is the last time Yesisreal is coming back as many of you feel, Yesisreal can do, with out its children helping it; instead of hindering it. So if they hear this, remember the love of the garden and don't kill anything that contains parts of Yesisreal, regardless of whether you believe it or not! If you do, it is very difficult to finish the web with all points and so can make it hell as the web collapses that Yesisreal was trying to make to help you gradually see if we don't help now.

The reason is people are scared of Yesisreal shadow; they saw Yesisreal shadow and thought it was real and forgot to see what was said and the first plummet line of any web!

Yet they forget with out Yesisreal and its web, there isn't any shadow and yet on the other hand Yesisreal has been murdered many times and in so wouldn't blame Yesisreal in leaving its web and let the wind do what it does with constant care, it disintegrates.

Yet people don't see this and so Yesisreal works for them to destroy what
