Summary: With many thinking peter is a name and jesus was his name, the underlying prophecy that are set to be fulfilled.

If you search the Bible for 'satan rebuke' and put on partial matches, you will find verses across the whole of the Bible.

After Yeshua explained to the disciples how he would fulfil prophecy by divorcing Zee1(

Quote:

Mar 8:31-33 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer, be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and be buried again. (32) And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to say unto him, Lord, if thou wilt, I will give thee a sword. But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men. This was prophesied for him to do so, so when he called Simon satan it was that with the name change to 'jesus' it makes most people miss it.

Quote:

Zec 3:1-2 And he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him. (2) And the LORD said unto me, O Satan; even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this the city? out of the fire?

Now many claim this is talking about Yeshua the high priest, who rebuilt Jerusalem. Yet within the prophetic implications, it's clearly defined by Yeshua; with the sentences making it clear it's more than just a repeat of what happened. The fact the end line of Zechariah chapter 3, has this statement and Yeshua as a stone for a reason implies he knew something we do not; which is most people were a Pharisee, which is why he was allowed to preach to the Sanhedrin.

Quote:

Zec 3:9 For behold the stone (peter - Petros) that I have laid before Joshua, upon which I have builded the temple: the same shall be a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, upon which shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

So when your told 'Simon says put your hands on your head, Simon says follow the synagogue of satan', don't believe everything you're told. Simon says as a Stumbling Stone of the nations. He even stated how satan had use for Simon. Simon has authority over the gates of hell; not the gates of heaven, as it is reiterated.
