Summary: Christ came to show the wisdom of God, it was the pharisees who and then proclaimed, he was a sin offering.

Many people believe that a human sacrifice was needed to redeem us to Yeshua stated he came for. This only came about from the Pharisee perspective. John the Baptist and Yeshua preached repentance for the forgiveness of sin, say that makes it so Evident that this is not the case as later taught by Paul. Quote:

Mat 9:13 but go and learn what this is; I desire mercy and not sacrifice. I do not desire the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Yeshua said this to the Pharisees in the hopes they would know the Bible, though it may sound strange, as this was what they were supposed to know from the Bible.

Quote:

Mat 12:7 But if you had known what this is, "I desire mercy and not sacrifice," you would not have condemned those who are not guilty.

Later he asked them again, yet still no reply from them, this time including the high priest, who had him put to death. We are told in John, as he was a member of the Pharisees, that it was Caiaphas who originally came up with the idea to have it that one man die for the sin, not this was the plan of God as portrayed by Paul.

Quote:

John 11:49-52 And one of them, Caiaphas, being the high priest of that year, who did not know anything at all, (50) nor do you consider that it is expedient for me, but for the people, and not that the whole nation perish. (51) And he did not say this because he was high priest that year, he prophesied that Yeshua should die for the sin of that nation only, but also that He should gather together in one the children of Israel who were scattered abroad.

If you can now see, it was not Yeshua's purpose to be killed as a sacrifice, but to show him a sin offering. So what did he mean and what was he referring to, mercy and not sacrifice.

Quote:

Hos 6:6 for I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God

Yeshua was pointing people to God and not him self, as many now believe. Also he made it clear that the knowledge of God is more important than self, as he came to show us some of the wisdom of God, so we killed him as a sin offering.

Quote:

Pro 21:3 to do justice and judgment is more pleasing to Jehovah than sacrifice.

Isa 1:11-17 to what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices to me? sa burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I do not delight in lambs, or of he-goats. (12) When you come to appear before me, who have your hand, to trample my courts? (13) Bring no more vain sacrifice; incense of the new moon and Sabbath, the going to meeting; I cannot endure evil and the new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hates; they are a trouble to me. (15) And when you spread out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you; for many prayers, I will not hear; your hands are full of blood. (16) Wash your hands clean; put away the evil of your doings from before my eyes; cease to do evil; seek judgment, reprove the oppressor. Judge the orphan, plead for the widow.

Here we have two accounts of where God has asked for judgment and justice instead of sacrifice. So when Christ said he came to fulfill the law he was asking for justice, but it had been disguised by the Pharisees.

Quote:

Mar 12:32-34 And the scribe said to Him, Right, Teacher, according to the law, God is one, and there is no other besides Him. (33) And to love Him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices. (34) And seeing that he answered intelligently, Yeshua said to him, you are not far from the kingdom of God. He then questioned Him any more.

This is quite evident that the scribe who answered was on the right track. Yeshua was saying, so again confirming this same principle, that the knowledge of God is more valuable than sacrifices. Now many might ask didn't Isaiah 53 prophecies let's go through it step by step and what was meant.

Quote:

Isa 53:1-12 who has believed our report? And to whom is the arm of Jehovah revealed? He comes up before Him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground; He has no majesty that we should see Him, nor an appearance that we should desire; He is despised and rejected of men; a Man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and as one who is hid from Him, He being despised, and we esteemed Him not. (4) Surely He has carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed Him stricken, smitten of God, and wounded for our transgressions; He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement was on Him; and with His stripes we ourselves are healed.

Now here this is quite clear it was Yeshua and the things that occurred at the cross can take another's sins, only God can forgive sin.

Quote:

(6) All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned, each one to his own way, and have laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

Now since the coming of Christ as he put himself it has caused division to follow the Pharisees and not the word he spoke.

Quote:

(7) He was oppressed, and He was afflicted; yet He opened not His mouth before Him who brought Him to the slaughter; and as a sheep before its shearers is dumb, so He opened not His mouth. He was taken from prison and from judgment; and who shall declare His generation? He was cut out of the land of the living; for the transgression of my people He was smitten, and He was reckoned among the transgressors; He was numbered with the wicked and with a rich one in His death; although He had done no violence, nor was there any deceit in His mouth. (10) Yet it pleased Jehovah to crush Him; to give Him grief and to bring forth His soul as a guilt-offering. He shall see His seed, He shall prolong His days, and Jehovah shall prosper in His hand.

Now this point is not often shown to people, that we make him grief as with a guilt offering as spoken here. Too many after reading the words of the Pharisee says here. This may be hard to digest, as it may still seem that unless blood is cleansed, yet not mans blood, the Bible states.

Quote:

(11) He shall see the fruit of the travail of His soul. He shall be fully satisfied, when my righteous Servant justify for many; and He shall bear their iniquities.

Then if you realize that we are told by Yeshua, that we will be judged by the words of the law when Paul and John is removed it is clear that what is taught cause many to think that what Yeshua taught.

Quote:

(12) Therefore I will divide to Him with the great, and He shall divide the spoil with the strong, because He has poured out His soul to death; and He was counted among the transgressors. He bore the sin of many, and made intercession for transgressors.

Now this end part may make many think, that what was taught by the Pharisee that Yeshua blood covers their sins. Yet this is not the case instead it means that the father. It is like this parable Yeshua stated not all the debt is taken.

Quote:

Luk 16:1-8 And He also said to His disciples, there was a certain rich man, to whom he was accused to him, that he had wasted his goods. (2) And he called him and said, Give an account of your stewardship, for you must give an account. And he said, My lord, what shall I do? For my lord is taking away my goods from me. I cannot dig; I am ashamed to beg. (4) I know what I will do, so that when my lord takes away from me the stewardship they may receive me into their houses. (5) So he called his servants and said; to the first, how much do you owe my lord? (6) And he said, Fifty measures of oil. And he said to him, Take your bill and sit down quickly and write fifty. And to the second, and how much do you owe? And he said A hundred cors of wheat. And he said to him, Take your bill and write eighty. (8) And the unjust steward's lord commended him because he had acted wisely.

For the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children

So you still have to pay the steward and the steward is God, Christ may (in some cases) for people, yet the final debt must still be paid. The debt is the sin of your life, an intercessor can explain things and even pass them to the person who will do what the judge does, in this case God.

So to be forgiven you need to repent to God, forgive all those who have wronged you as a good person. Not believe that one mans faith can cover your sin and make you go to Heaven.
