

Title: Learn Talents for Heaven

Subtitle: Religious Resolution

Author: wizanda

Date: 2006/8/6

URL: <https://www.wizanda.com/modules/article/view.article.php/c3/58>

Keywords: Talents, Heaven, Skills, Oneness, Wisdom, Principles

Summary: What the Parable of the talents means when in Heaven, and what this is.

Many of Christ's parables have been muddled up and the true meaning has a lot of these are to do with money, as the church is more money orientated. What talking about in all parables is God. When he used references to money he was talking in skills. I find it funny with this parable, how the words talents, the Bible uses as a currency and that is what Christ was referring to.

Quote:

Mat 25:14-30 for it is as if a man going abroad called his own servants and gave them talents (15) And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one talent according to his ability. And he went abroad at once. (16) And going he who had received five talents, he traded and made another five talents. (17) And likewise he who had received two talents, he also traded and made another two. (18) But he who had received the one talent went and dug a hole in the ground and hid his lord's silver. (19) After a long time the lord of those servants came and tested them. And so he who had received five talents came and brought another five talents and said, Lord, I have delivered five talents to me. Behold, I have gained five talents above the ones I received. Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful over a few talents, over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord. (22) He also who had received two talents came and said, Lord, you delivered two talents to me. Behold, I have gained two talents more. (23) His lord said to him, well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful over a few talents, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord. (24) He who received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew that you were a hard man, who did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter. (25) And I was afraid, and I hid your talent in the earth. Lo, you have yours. (26) His lord answered and said to him, unfaithful servant! You knew that I reaped where I did not sow, and gathered where I did not scatter, you should have put my money to the exchangers, and coming I would have gained interest. (28) Therefore take the talent from him and give it to him who has five talents. For everyone who has, more shall be given, and he will abound. But from him who does not have, which he has shall be taken away from him. (30) And throw the unprofitable servant into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

So what does this really mean, well if Christ was always talking about God, what are you given when you are born? Skills! Certain people have a natural skill when you are given more than others it doesn't mean you have to invest more, you have to invest in more skills. If you are born being able to speak more than extra three. If you find it easy to play musical instruments, learn as many what ever skills you can find.

These are the riches, you can take to heaven!

Quote:

Mat 6:19-21 do not lay up treasures on earth for yourselves, where moths and thieves break through and steal. (20) But lay up treasures in Heaven for where moths nor rust corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

You see when and if you get to heaven, the talents you have learned and acquired make you shine in heaven. Other angels wish to meet you and find out what you are and you spend time learning off each other, and seeing who the other is in a realm of pure love, yes God does know all things and you are fed by what you say you have someone; who was a wonderful musician, he can show another how to play these things simply, by bonding with them. they understand all that the other is so important? as the universe learns, all creatures learn, heaven learns. you know all things already, yet skills and the creative side of a spirit knows no bounds. something special to add to the collective whole, making it more radiant.

Quote:

Dan 12:3 and those who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the sky above; and those who follow to righteousness shall shine as the stars forever and ever.

Yet again I have to tell Paul off, as him telling people to be simple in Christ.

Quote:

Col 2:3 in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

Now this doesn't say be simple, yet this is what appears to have happened. This is the way to wisdom. You see if you follow what Christ actually said and then you are simple.

Quote:

Mat 6:33 but seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness; and all these things will be added to you.

Then through God, all wisdom is possible, being simple in Christ is not for the Christians, who have not used any of their given talents, and as for making a name for themselves say maybe tomorrow. It is the same as the parable; they have buried their talents. what will happen when they are judged? Many will say "we followed Jesus and you, and that God committed murder for us so we are saved?"

If you read all of the articles I have written you would see how wrong this is.

- 1) You are saying God broke his own commandment by committing murder.
- 2) His name is not Jesus; it is Yeshua! In ancient Hebrew the language of the Jews, the other not.
- 3) Christ said "I require mercy and not sacrifice" and he was referring to the burnt offerings.
- 4) If you followed him you would do as he asked! Not follow the Pharisees and make more talents and make more with them!

Sorry if this is telling you off, yet if you say you are a follower of Christ you must do.

There are more people I have seen during my life, who I recognize from hippies/travelers than in the churches. Why? As many of these people are multilingual as they travel, if they meet someone who can do some new skill about it. Many of them have left commercial society, as they are not interested in persecuting these people, see what they know, learn from them. I am not and all the churchgoers are the same, yet overall this is the case. Life is to learn skills and help towards oneness, not to spend your time until later and waiting till tomorrow and making money. Don't do something as it earns well, do something because you enjoy it and