Summary: How the prophecy of the potters field, was foretold and fulfilled

While searching the Bible the other day I found a prophecy, that I hadn't didn't understand it. Yet with time it has become clearer and may shock that 1st Jews, then Gentiles, which as far as this prophecy states and the As they killed the vine dressers son and so the owner of the vine yard; wine dressers, as in Christ's parable. Now this same principle has been proph Zechariah. I have added to this in brackets, all bits to make it a bit easier referring to.

Quote:

Zec 11:3-17 There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is destroyed. God: Feed the flock of the slaughter, (5) those buying them kill them, and And those who sell them say, Blessed be Jehovah, for I am rich; and they them. (Jewish people and their teachers) (6) For I will never again pity Jehovah; but lo, I will make the men come out, each one into his neighbor's hand. And they shall strike the land, and I will not deliver out of their hand slaughter, even the poor of the flock. And I took two staves for myself; the (grace), and the other I called Union (inheritance). And I fed the flock. shepherds (Sadducees, Pharisees and Levites*) in one month; and my soul and their soul also despised me. (9) And I said, I will not feed you; that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off. And those left, let them eat, each (Deuteronomy 28:53-55) (10) And I took my staff Kindness (grace), and covenant which I had made with all the peoples (Abrahamic Covenant). (11) that day; and so the poor of the flock who were watching me knew that it (12) And I said to them, if it is good, give my price; and if not, let it go thirty pieces of silver. (Given to Judas) (13) And Jehovah said to me; Take magnificent price at which I was valued by them. And I took the thirty pieces to the potter in the house of Jehovah (Potters field in the land of Israel) staff Union (Inheritance) apart, that I might break the brotherhood between Covenant). (15) And Jehovah said to me; Take to yourself yet the instrument (Pharisees) (16) For lo, I will raise up a shepherd (Paul) in the land who to ruin, nor will he seek the young, nor will he heal that which is broken, nor stands. But he shall eat the flesh of the fat and tear off their hoofs. (17) shepherd who abandons the flock! The sword shall be on his arm and on be completely dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

*Now people may think the 3rd sect is the Essenes, yet within what Christ

Pharisees, Sadducees and the lawyers (Biblical law) i.e. Levites keepers would fulfil this to the letter as indeed they didn't like him and he tried unjust.

Before explaining this; 1st here is the bit that makes it clear, that indeed the chances of this happening as foretold are immeasurable.

Quote:

Mat 27:3-8 Then he who had betrayed Him, seeing that He was condemned, returned the thirty pieces of silver again to the chief priests and elders, betraying innocent blood. And they said, what is that to us? You see to the pieces of silver down in the temple and departed. And he went and hanged himself. And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, it is not lawful to put them for the price of blood. (7) And they took counsel and bought the potter's field for the strangers in. (8) Therefore that field was called, The Field of Blood, to this day.

The price of the son of God was 30 silver pieces, the shepherds as the price of the option of accepting Christ or not. Yet instead they chose to have him betrayed for only 30 pieces of silver. Then the bit that makes this full price are the chances that Judas would choose the potters field in the land of Judah to the letter.

The part of the eating of the neighbours flesh, is in reference to the Curse (Leviticus 28:53-55); where when the Jews were sent out among the nations as the price of their other's flesh at the 2nd temple destruction. The Roman Siege of Israel laid waste to them, they starved to death, and literally eat those who died first.

Within Christ's teaching he basically disowned the Pharisees, Sadducees and the lawyers (the Biblical law); Matthew 23 is a good example of this. So this indeed betrays the vine dressers, not giving the fruit to the owner, or in this prophecy that Christ gave to the poor and helps teach them the things of God, as the Sadducees were doing, yet instead they just filled their own pockets. So this means that that first Jews then Gentiles, the Jews cut them self off by this act of paying the price.

Now the second part to this is the foolish shepherd, being Paul of the Pharisees, the sheep of Israel, as the disciples were instructed to tend too. He then weaved a one-sided idea (blind in one eye) of what Christ was about, with out referring to his own interpretation.

The Rabbi over the flock whilst the diaspora has taken place, have made themselves, and not fed the flock the knowledge of the Messiah. In Jeremiah 23, and Ezekiel 34 it continues the language used, when the Lord removes these foolish shepherds, and establishes a true kingdom over the flock.

Also we can see John and Paul being part of the shepherds to be kicked out of the flock; possible Sadducees; who have done a remarkable job of covering this up. Paul manages in his teachings to not only re-establish many of the old traditions (Pharisee); yet then established a whole church system that follows to the letter. The only thing with all of this though, is they might have been very sneaky.

comes to heaven, all they have done is shut up the path for many. Paul b tells us they searched the scriptures for grace and couldn't find it. This searched the scriptures for the Hebrew word grace and found this. So un grace as they killed Christ, I will put it as Christ and this prophecy state God's grace through Christ. For if you believe what the Pharisees have w not worthy of heaven, as you proclaim your self a worker of iniquity, bec God, and by the son of God being murdered, you can steal eternal life. This is why Christ said he came to bring division, as what he did was giv fulfilling this prophecy that the sects should be stopped. The meaning of and Israel has happened, even though they may have forged half of the B The reason being is that Mohammed came from Judah and said that Chris had been changed. The Pharisee or Jewish made these changes and so n Judah against Israel.

So indeed every part of this has been fulfilled, it may have been covered teachings, yet the truth remains, and the prophecy has come to pass.
