Have you ever seen them? Jets leaving those contrails in patterns. Even on politically or globally at the sametime? Coincidence?

Did you see the sometimes purple patches on the lawn the next morning?

It's something that will cause things to happen later. When it rains and it goes into our bodies. Then it turns into a crystal inside your body. Why you

You remember The Gulf war when the Iraq's surrender in groves, very unusual when you die in battle you go to heaven. They used what they called a purple (they only said that once on the news never to be spoke again).

This was a byproduct of Haarp. Beamed from planes overhead. Using directed energy to cause certain behaviour. OK, what's that got to do with the contrails in the sky? react to frequency? If that purple stuff grows with seed planted in the ground

Some suggested reading: Montauk Project by Preston Nichols and book three by Preston Nichols. I don't recommend book three I felt that there was disinformation you decide for your self.

These two books go into Haarp, aliens and more. Do not despair. There is hope

I also recommend www.thesite.com

We'll talk more later. Go in Peace
