After having a perpetual motion generator that we have approached major UK, do you know what they told a 19 year old genius who hasn't studied

Yet understand practical of physics over theory and equations.

That they had been to student houses, like my mums as its scruffy and far and in a humble life is far more learned then in a rich one, as we did have in Africa with live aid after this he left business as he realized it is political charities are.

So follow pipe dreams of industrial community that care for others and with the coldest city going as many foreigner's say and me working meeting in industrial areas.

Show what you are saying that industrial sounds is in anyway helping make false, as we analysed huge groups of people in different towns and see the town or farming town to begin.

One is warm hearted and open streeting as you needed the space for horse much the redesigned Milton Keynes from the bottom up, and guess what it to long to get from a-b as the streets are far to wide spread.

Instead of anyone listening to each other they listened to grinding machinery of community and community spaces that are needed.

You seem nothing to do with this subject in some ways and it appears you funny as so is this site.

So where are you going more so we can understand you reasoning
