I find it really strange that no one says hello... this site has a real time year hardly any of you would?

Is that not crazy???

For me it is as this is my living room for years now and so, it is strange talk to you all most are fearful of something?? half wait for?

Well unlike many who wait we work and try and prove oneness all day in We don't work; other then helping people and this is what most prophets so regardless of where or whom you are reality starts when we live it for

So take the time as other people will read what you put on here and thou taking the time to add points of your ideas of oneness and how this can l

As it is through people speaking up that we have this better world we ha worse....

most live in this fantasy land we are getting worse...this again is maddn pistols at dawn

Now we get a few shooting and we hear of these we think its all gone bac

Again stop with the fear and start living it...

Now if people do and try and make a break from the normal of needing a stereo-type website in which to express them selfs...

Then maybe we can start to spread dao throughout as should have been a so if you are alive and walk in my living room as you have to be reading Anwser back it is really rude to ignore someone like many have and will

We don't demand anything just people to at least comment and feed back

Hello is a good start or hola or dzene dobre or bon jour the list contiune
