Someone Had To Figure It Out Sooner Or Later

No one knows where life started and no one ever will
But something beautiful has happened and you are part of it.

The keyword here is "given"-what's given can be taken away.

But there was one thing I never understood, it's something that can't be not taught in our schools.

SHARING!!!

People who grow up all alone are never taught to share.
Some never learn regardless of upbringing.
when technology exceeds wisdom, the people who take for themselves ha
I couldn't understand love, because without sharing there is no love.
For everything I've ever learned, all the God-given gifts I was born with, knowledge and money in the world can not bring happiness.
What is wrong with you people?
It shouldn't be one nation under God, it should be one world under God.
People go through life and everything they learn, everything they do, the all for number one.

No one wants to share anymore.

THIS PLANET BELONGS TO NO MAN!

There were animals, plants, life forms that were present long before man.
Life is a puzzle.

I put it together because I thought I hurt someone I loved.

The elder race found a way, through the use of superscience and technology, to put life into this planet's ecosystem.

Religion was created to keep man in check, give him something to live for,
and a way for men to share their time and ideas with one another.

Each time an empire, or great nation fell, the creators somehow gave us a new way of life, But the experiment isn't working.

With all the freedom man has given himself lately, there are more people turning on themselves than there are people who are willing to share with others.

Greed, selfishness, ignorance, and stupidity.

Those are the reasons empires have fallen.

I've seen it in the history books and I'm seeing it now.

Millions of men and women have lost their lives in wars because they did not share.
Children are killing and hurting each other and their families because they do not share.
I cried myself to sleep for years of my life because I didn't understand.

Now I think I understand.

When the sharing is gone, the love is gone.

That's when you get your thieves, rapists, murderers and drug addicts.

These people have no values, they were never given a decent feeling in their lives.

And what of the 10 commandments?

The only way gifted people get famous is by sharing their time and ideas.
The greatest scientific discoveries in history would mean nothing to anyone if they were not shared with the world.

Everyone has a gift, talent, or ability that can be developed through hard work and dedication.

Some people have many gifts they aren't even aware of.

People need to learn to share their gifts with others.

Children need to be taught to share things with other people, respect other people.

"A planet of playthings, we dance on the strings of powers we can not perceive."

Understand that our God is the biosphere.

The medium between air, land and water.

Not just life, but a consciousness.

God is the sum total of all matter and energy in the universe-waves and biochemical energy.

There are energy cycles and forces at play man does not yet understand.

And if things don't change mighty quick we never will.

There is a part of every person that needs love to grow.

It's just not tangible and we won't understand it for decades.

It's a way to keep hatred at bay.

Life is beautiful

Maybe we can't change it, but we can live it without hurting anyone.
Can't we?
