Thanks for starting a thread much easier to reply to..

My reason's go like this...

For every reaction there has to be an equal and opposite reaction in the other...

Well that is slightly how it appeared in the after life; and is also related

As in here is not heaven, this is God's foot-stool implying hell or there a heaven in the Quran...(real heaven 10+)

You see many here are what is known as 666 they only exist as something 6 electron, 6 photons = all carbon based life...or Matter for short...or Ma

Heaven is not this and is made of unconditional love and wisdom...

Which is the basic fabric of the reality..almost like a super computer code film..only reality is more easy to follow as code...

This is seen in the fact, our consciousness are symbiotically linked globally in one of us, this is felt on electromagnetic level throughout...which is based on tests; that show random variables unless something major happens, that we notice..such as princess Diana dieing or other such horrific events,

Well that same energy they are trying to tap into and use our own energy for God and heaven..lol

Must laugh as the chances of so us ever over coming, what we are in for some closer then they will ever know...yet one day we may see.

Point being is this..up to 7th dimension as we will fully explain is here a

Now beyond here is what is needed as requirements in spirit..not mind...

someone and expect to get into heaven through following their words..ye accumulating and congregating every thought action and option taken, to aiming to be perfect in spirit; not mind, you can't take it with you..

You see what many have done here as we see it is to take the religious b sake of profit and not prophet...

Mohammed can't give anyone a seat, neither can Yeshua and they both s yet still people follow them as of them self's..by idolising every word the being a harlot and the other not actually working to said goal the prophe

One of the main things that is wrong is that of unconditional love will pu wrong as to teach...

Leading back to the start and finalizing the question..as in that this is th universe..God is there every step of the way....

Well is in my case and every one else's yet many don't notice and create ever you wish to all it...

As in they will hurt them self's and say it was due to this or that..go bac given time of accident and in many cases it is due to illogical and irratio never taken place..

God hears that and is all!

Yet for God to be as such God has also experienced and re-lived them m ever will...

You see when said in God's image correct..yet not in this human form..ye single spirit is has the abilities to do as God did..yet only one may find Spirit is like an I to begin, it can evolve and become O...as in a circle..y live times and not just one live..yet that of every animal, and object in-b eternal life..

Why we have here I do believe as in it says Elohim (angels) made here..I once hell its self....just pure basement energies intermingling with no re

So along comes God's highest angel, whom many said fell..yet do believe God...not the other way around...as in when it saw how bad it was beco of time it would try and enlighten the people to see, if they could truly m intrinsically weaved dimensional light being...with God knowing that rega be as made..it is extremely difficult to change spirit..mind is one thing s
So we keep trying!! =(personal point learning why said God makes him gr

So it did this many times explaining the a same thing again and again..ye admit here didn't let it...

Why as here is based on Ego = was hell as I saw it all blame and no time above..heaven tries to be below and why it is above..

As who counts wisdom or unconditional love as anything to be gained..

I know of many whom are wishing to sit on plastic couches? Or sit in a p humble little orphanage in the middle of a swamp and that gets me close

As in the light of the orphanage stands a divine carer, who sits and read who remain in its care..

Yet many don't want that..and so why god allows both..as with out one th

We learn unconditional love through actually living it..God made the thin and feeling of the whole reality..so a bit more to deal with then a our co hardships...try making a painting that then turns around and says I hate rubbish?

Who is rubbish? The painting with its many beautiful landscapes or..that over-shadows the rest...

So we see, if people are ever to make this place peace...they first are g a lot of work and lot more humbleness to begin...

As one Ego leads on to another which ever way we look and this is growi cultures preconditioning its children to make wealth from them...

On the other hand we have global cooperatives taking place wanting the

This is what we knew at 4 years old, yet within reading of the books we f strange life this is for me..almost like pre -written..we live it then read i written..

So we have no fear of the end time where it is that there is one clear pla unity...being the temple...south east of Jerusalem on the mount...where t and will, too join in the praise...yet don't ask me when this is..just can s at the beginning and so will there at the end..

Why end and begin?

As all moves in circles..not one thing in my life hasn't not one thing in t we will and all has a returning to once it came..be it soil and of the eart then it returns to its maker..

As only as paint may it be put back in the pot..when it dries and become much to be reformed with and painted into, and so something more befit that time...instead it falls back into being the background and gets paint

So basically lots of works to do..many here think they are in heaven already short..lets set the fields a fire by letting people know politely, that is the Yeshua makes sense, as in that the sand is here and many build their as perfection..if we say here is hell to begin..then we can see where we fall begin....as in his parable of going to the judgement seat and the altar here heaven..and:

That the preacher goes up and says look how perfect I am already and how is so wrong...= Sand

Then the other sitting at the bottom and saying God I know I am wrong and you..we all make mistakes and I am know better than another under any c

Guess most Christianity has nothing to do with anything I am saying though of the books...so in that is the snare that has been set...why?

This is the most curious..God laid it out beginning to end..problem is the deceive to the fact..point is though it is still there!!!

The articles we are helping to write are that of points given within the bible enough evidence to show why..

Only conclusion of it?

To show where and why we are all un-worthy and as such live in this universe of heaven and the temple of God that exists glistening in hyperspace since to be, yet due to breaking of the 13 commandments as we will explain pe
