Agree Religion is not Spirituality, yet one started the other...

As ~~spirituality~~ ~~religion~~.

The commandments were Egyptian or older...Moses stole these and since countless books trying to end that, what was set in place...by said pharaoh government all the same all hierarchal....

Funny you mention us so much in that we are Zanda you know this? So spiritual Yoga....

The Ascension is as always has been getting people into heaven due their

Not any sacrifice ect as that is sin to begin....

So when we are here trying very hard in this human body as you put it, like meteor came, yet feel quite human

Though have been able to change weather and see miracles, still feel quite and less of this; lets make them higher, our self's lower and widen the ground bring back...

So ~~religion~~ ~~government~~ one....

~~Spirituality~~ life are one...

as all spirit life's...that also includes what people call death....yet having is not death....this is the beginning as after death of this life and under and having lived unconditional love, with all....

Then that is what ascension is all about...

Very concerning me when we have countless millions jumping (I) want to with what...who will keep you company when all these millions are wanting basement of dynamic quantum field of its self....

So when we don't desire (I am) yet we are, is when we have a chance of witnessed i.e. heaven...do believe from what we have seen so far that to like this one is possible also...

So lets work out, where or what it is, from reality factors and not speculation
Elohim mentioned means angels or ascended being elders...how do I know
