MY TESTIMONY

The idea that God lets any creature suffer endlessly has caused me more problems of my life combined. By the time I had reached the mission field a satisfactory answer that would justify God allowing this to happen. I did. Surrounded by thousands of people, dozens of whom were dying every day, the eternity of suffering in hell was too much for me.

In 1966, at age 28, it caused me to have a nervous breakdown. For several months I lay in my bed in a state of terror night and day. The terror was caused by the fear of what love or respect would do to me after I died. It took me twelve years to fully recover from the breakdown. I quickly became agnostic, for the Christian gospel and the Bible gave me no comfort to me at all. Many evangelical friends tried to help me. They meant well, but all had only words of condemnation towards me. This added more suffering to my suffering.

Gradually I began to learn that there have been, in centuries past, and still are, in the world that see a different kind of God in the Bible. They see a God who does not suffer forever. They see a God in the Bible who will change every second to do something better that it happened, including the sufferings of Satan. I learned that the Bible (literally) translated Bible teaches universal transformation, not endless suffering and annihilation. I read dozens of books, and listened to hundreds of tapes by Rodger Tutt and I gradually became converted to believing this way myself.

Since 1981, through my newspaper ads and my telephone ministry, I have sent out thousands of packets of literature explaining why I believe as I do. I have also sent out thousands of packets to pastors and Bible school teachers. None of them have told me that they agree. I have also read eight books that were supposed to refute the evidence in favor of the Bible.
