Chuck Missler - Wikipedia

Conservative Christian it says on there and maybe one point that put me same and i have used a computerized version of the same software to look

Yet really it is a random pattern in some cases..the one where they find word looking up and down is too random for my liking of official evidence

Yet Codes like

Egypt = Man

Yeshua = Hook, plummet stone, Rook

I.e. as these are placed by the author, and can be confirmed by all.

Yet on the others try it your self and see what you find and you can find is saying well here is an alphabet, lets use the letters from it to make words Well that is my opinion of some of it anyways....
