Is all love not conditioned on the benevolence of it's Source?
And if the Source lacked the willingness to share would love in any form be experienced outside of the Source?
Yet, as the Source is manifest in all things, is love not also? And is it not the sharing of love that enables it's manifestation? Is not the very idea of "Unconditional Love" based on the selfish notion that one being can remain on the receiving end of love irregardless of external conditions?
LOVE IS NOT A ONE WAY STREET! Without Sharing there is no Love~
Perhaps the two most destructive words introduced to mankind were not "I AM", but "Unconditional Love".

Because I'm here to tell you.....THERE IS NO SUCH THING!!!
