~~The Butterfly Effect~~

The flap of a butterfly's wings in Brazil can set off a storm in Texas. statement? Physicists call this theory "The Butterfly Effect" to explain produced by a butterfly's wings could set off a series of reverberation tremendous affect on weather patterns thousands of miles away. Now millions of butterflies...

Currently on earth there is a "quickenning" where more and more peop much more to reality than meets the eye and are beginning to explore As we open up to the higher consciousness, we allow in a powerful en guides our individual evolutionary journey if we allow it to.
