With our physical eyes. NOBODY can "see" God. Except through visions. Visions through the opening of what it has been called the "third eye", with consciousness. However, you don't gain nothing by just having visions. Everything that exists has a name and form. God is a soul. A soul is an individual. Just like you and I. We are souls. Souls cannot "see" unless they take a form. We are souls, we can think. We have thoughts.

Due to the fact that we don't know this and we still think that we are the body, we have lost our divinity and our ability to have that connection with God. Soul consciousness is the way to have an experience of God and your own.
