Though the Quran was to be recited, Yeshua condemned us making repetition of reality (Allah); as it wastes time, it isn't being direct.

Matthew 6:5-8 "When you pray, you shall not be as the hypocrites, for they pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. I tell you, they have received their reward. (6) But you, when you pray, enter your room, and having shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret, and you will be rewarded by your Father openly. (7) In praying, don't use vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do, that they will be heard for their much speaking. (8) Therefore don't be like him, for he knows what things you need, before you ask him.

Allah hears all of our thoughts, as it manifests reality at a quantum level. The Quran was during prayer times, as it is meditative rhythmic patterns, that the audience, who then pray deeper.

Prayer is about direct connection in meditation (Salat).
