Lots of Christians do believe in the death & resurrection of Christ; yet they are in the Bed of Adultery (Isaiah 28:9-19).

We're meant to honour the life & Testimony of the Messiah (Isaiah 8:11-22) but built up by these Pharisaic authors - John, Paul, & Simon the stumbling stone.

The early Ebionite church with James the Just (Christ's brother), stood on the original understandings, and now two thousand years later, the world has been led astray by this doctrine.

When Yehoshua/Yeshua named Simon Petros (small Stone like a Pebble) as the Corner Stone in fulfilment of Zechariah 3:9, & Isaiah 8:14-16; that Simon would mislead the people with Pharisaic doctrine.

In the Parable of the Seed Sower, 'the Seed that falls on Stony-Ground'.

One of the last things Yeshua said to Simon, was 'that satan wished to sift you like wheat' (Matthew 22:31-32).

We have Midrash saying that Simon left the original followers of Yeshua and helped create a more Pharisaic Christianity.

If we understand we're meant to build upon the firm foundations of the Rock (Matthew 7:24-26), and 'Simon followed man made doctrine more than God' (Matthew 23:17) where Yeshua called him 'satan', when he 'rebuked' what was prophesied in Zechariah 3:1-2).

The problem with people putting forward 'Precept upon Precept' in Isaiah 28:9-19, is it's part of the Bed of Adultery from Isaiah 28:9-19.

Where the Pharisaic authors (John, Paul, Simon) created a Covenant with the Corner Stone's (Messiah's) death being a payment to God; yet it was dishonourably conceived.

The Messiah in Isaiah 53 was put to death by his people, and he received the punishment that makes God grieve, when they turned him into a human sacrifice (Isaiah 53:10).
