Betelgeuse is currently 150% above its normal brightness, and is pulsating. A Coronal Mass Ejection, 400 times bigger than anything we've ever seen at

Astronomers & scientists are looking forward to a solar system destroying earth, predicting it will not affect earth.

This is really stupid on their part, as if a solar system collapses into a black hole, solar systems can also collapse due to the gravitational effects.

When a sun supernovas the surrounding asteroid belt is flung out into the space. The size of Betelgeuse is 900 times bigger than our sun, and spreads as far as the size of our solar system; this means there will be a massive asteroid belt, that will destroy other solar systems in orbit, where all of that will be effected.

Prophetically we can look at multiple places in the Bible where this is warned of, the Parable of the Fig before Summer (Matthew 24:29-35, Mark 13:24-31, Luke 21:28:1-22).

In Revelation 6:12-17 the Elites have underground bases in Greenland, where they will survive, and have sent out a guest-list to themselves; the issue with this is that the Book of Life (Zan's guest-list) are resurrected into the Age to Come.

There are references to the sun & moon being darkened across the Bible, which is identifiable, and the sun being referenced is in the constellation Orion (Isaiah 34:4, Ezekiel 32:7, etc).

Within Joel 2:30-32 we're warned that Zion will come before Judgement Day (Joel 2:1-3), and due to The Seventh Ecumenical Council regarding Jewish prophecy, no one knows these things are soon coming.

The Elites have made two big Creed films & Ditch Look Up where they are rubbing it in everyone's faces that they know these things are imminent, and that everyone as it will cause mass panic.
