Dude here..Wow that is good, yes we have downed a couple of them, the impulse piggybacked onto a type of laser. Its the little grays we have downed, me thinks. They will never down one of heavens ufos, that imp

Some of them do have time travel, to figure future events. I have a book from the 20th century, was doing out of body stuff and going to the akashic record of the machine age coming. The papacy then killed all knowledge of the spirit, the future. They then will bring back the knowlegdge of the spirit in their time, which has alraedy been done. The book is "Spear of Destiny" by Trevor R. White like that. So Ufos aint the only ones reading the future, the vatican is too, and satanists are doing it to, along with satan himself. In fact in montauk, Long Island, there is a particle accelerator up there, thats tied to the philadelphia experiment. I have went back in time and tried to kill Jesus, but it didnt work. They did it for cloning// So the book says.. "Montauk" by Peter Moon.

Man wouldnt ya like to go thru a wormhole? I sure would...

I am growed up, sounds like you are to. we just gotta get the rest to grow up and neuro-linguistic programing, seems we are beating our heads against the wall, got us all, not yet, by dingys. lol

Hey I gotta go away for awhile, I am sure going to miss this thread. I feel like I want to take a ridee in one of heavens ufos. Man wont that be something. I can see the hole, doing drivbys on planets, talking excitedly to the angels, Saying thank you and your UFO on such and such a day". Its going to be exciting. We serve you to ya when I get back, could be a month.. miss ya already David ..peace and safety and protection, in Jesus name, amen.. Ufo's away...yea!
