From the book, Illuminati formula by Fritz and Springmeyer.. "The basis is that different personalities called alters can be created who do not know they take the body at different times. The front alters can be wonderful christians, but the back alters can be the worst type of satanists imaginable, both living in the same body.

This would explain someone stating the devil is real, and then in the same breath saying the devil is not real, but only ego..its because different personalities take over and control the body.
