The references to the whore, is in the sense of that a women is counted book of revelations, as wisdom, or more a way of wisdom in the knowledge, whore is a reference to that people worship something other then God alone Christ, through the writing of the books of John and Paul they portrayed people to worship him), which he was not and in Matthew Mark and Luke, The dragon gives its authority to the beast, the Pharisee rewrote the Bible Paul, so making a lot of people believe they should worship man i.e. Christ by a harlot, as you are sharing your soul with others. The reason it is called is that from this all churches have spread. So the whore is only a symbol of heaven really doesn't have different sexes and images. The fact that many people see these things with images sometimes, is that with and it makes it easier for them to understand as images are far easier
