When I say sent, I mean I have known since I was about 4-5 years old what I had been sent.

The 1st time I saw a bible I knew I would have to go over it one day and inside that Christ had said it right and that I would have to find out where

This is what contained on this site and in a lot of the articles.

The point of the begotten son is written by John and from the evidence of many private conversations of the pharisee, that only a pharisee would know the words of Christ, yet has been taken as being so.

Where as if you read the contradictions contained, that contradict the old testament, Mohammed was referring to and told about.

If you read the articles on it, it will show where there is some blatant copying of the gospels that actually say the same thing is a lie i.e. the destorying of the

On the whole Buddhist point they don't worship like Muslims do, they see a deeper understanding of God i.e. enlightenment.

In their principles they help others and giving to the poor, in actual fact they are the servant of Allah.

Yet this point remains to say other gods is not Muslim, as there is no God but Allah. So the point is all of these are discussing the same God.

As there is only one God!!!

God is so immense that we have so many books trying to describe God, yet if you were to describe God, if the sea was ink, there would still not be enough to describe Him.

If in every language God has a different name, how can one name say it all? A Name is just a sound, it is the true belief of Allah that is called for revelation.

I do not accept any of the current Christian ideology as most stems from a false following of Christ!

As they believe they can receive an inheritance as Christ died for them. Christ actually said those who believe they can do that will be chucked out of the kingdom.

This is the main principle taught by both John and Paul i.e. God so loves the world that He sent His only son?

God doesn't commit murder!

In some ways I do hear your point as there is a quite clear description of the
