Hi, this is David. I don't know about aliens mind controlling me with their electromagnetic discombulators thing a magingies... sounds like someone much smoke in from the magic pipe(if you know what i mean) to me. Alien again, that does not mean they are hostile... how do we know this? Earth to become hostile, we can expect to see hostility shown to us. Alien culture very different than our own. Misunderstandings from these differences can be as well... that is... if our alien friends had an i.q. of under 200. Intelligence thinking about such things, therefore they should not judge us by our culture it may seem to them. vice versa. I've gotta run, take care all, hope you are of your awareness, and your consciousness of your consciousness.
